STEWARDS

Terry Graves and Anthony Rew

Hook Wood provided a fitting end to this year's British Championship. The Clerk of the Course and his assistants provided a good mix of sections of varied severity to ensure that the whole entry had a good day's sport.

There were 69 starters, the trial started on time, the results of the trial and the British Championship were concluded and available by 4pm. Well done to all and thank you to the competitors for supporting this event and the Championship.

I hope all of you and other riders will want to come and compete in next year's British Biketrial Championship.

Finally, the owner of Hook Wood, Jim Connor will allow riders to practise at Hook Wood,
BUT ONLY BY PRIOR ARRANGEMENT. DO NOT JUST TURN UP AND RIDE YOUR BIKE.

The cost is £10.00 per rider and you must telephone Jim first on 01483 285727

Jim tells me that failure to do this could result in the loss of Hook Wood for cycle trials.
